Officers Debra Cyr & Daniel Vasquez receive the Catch-A-Cop awards from WCPAAA member Gail Myers, center

On September 28, 2007, Gail Myers and I arrived at the H-Town Bail Bond office and there was a Webster Police Car and an Ambulance parked in the parking lot. It appeared to have been a two-car accident on Hwy. 3. There was a pregnant lady (nine months) that had been in one of the cars, standing outside and I asked her if she would like to come inside and wait in the office where it was cooler. The ambulance could not take her to Clear Lake Regional Hospital because it was full. Her Doctor was there waiting to do blood work so that when her family arrived, he could induce labor. She refused the ambulance and waited on her family to take her to the CLRH. After she had given all her information to Officer Cyr and Officer Vasquez, she came in. Officer Cyr came in to check on her to make sure she was okay. Officer Cyr waited out in the parking lot for her family to arrive. I think the Officer went out of her way to make sure that this lady's family did arrive to take her to the hospital.

TCO Tiffany Swanson & Officer Daniel Rebolledo (not shown) received the Catch-A-Cop awards from WCPAAA member Georgie Benavides.

On August 18, 2007, Joan Pesek went to Paul Shieb's residence, across the street from the Police Station and there was no answer. Paul's walker was at the door. Joan Pesek went to the PD to see if they knew where he was. Officer Daniel Rebolledo went over to the house and he could not get any response either. Officer Rebolledo called dispatch and Tiffany Swanson located Paul for them. Paul was in the hospital and had surgery. This was a very good service for Joan Pesek and she appreciated it very much.
